DETAILED ACTION

Claims 47-50 are pending.

Terminal Disclaimer

1. The terminal disclaimer filed on February 22, 2006 disclaiming the terminal portion of any patent granted on this application which would extend beyond the expiration date of 6,306,308 and 6,656,377 have been reviewed and is accepted. The terminal disclaimer has been recorded.

Response to Amendment

2. It is noted that the amended claims 48-50 include underlining of the concentrations of the solutions previously in the claims. Applicants' intent to claim said subject matter is clear and the underlining, although superfluous, is deemed acceptable in this instance.

Specification

3. Applicant is reminded of the proper content of an Abstract of the Disclosure.

In chemical patent abstracts for compounds or compositions, the general nature of the compound or composition should be given as well as its use, e.g., "The compounds are of the class of alkyl benzene sulfonyl ureas, useful as oral anti-diabetics." Exemplification of a species could be illustrative of members of the class. For processes, the type reaction, reagents and process conditions should be stated, generally illustrated by a single example unless variations are necessary.

Complete revision of the content of the abstract is required on a separate sheet.

There is no mention of ferric chloride solution in the abstract but required by all the pending claims.

4. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: the cross-noting section of the specification is required to be updated.

Appropriate correction is required.

5. The amendment filed February 22, 2006 is objected to under 35 U.S.C. 132(a) because it introduces new matter into the disclosure. 35 U.S.C. 132(a) states that no amendment shall introduce new matter into the disclosure of the invention. The added material which is not supported by the original disclosure is as follows: the four paragraphs added to the specification at the bottom of page 12, which includes the limitations of the claims 47-50.

Applicant is required to cancel the new matter in the reply to this Office Action.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

6. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

7. Claims 47-50 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter, which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. The concentrations set forth in claims are not ipso verba set forth in the original disclosure, appear to be calculated values, and/or are unsupported. Applicants should state for the record the basis for the limitations and/or take other action to obviate this rejection.

8. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

9. Claim 47 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. In claim 47, the limitation "said aluminum chlorohydrate solution being about 50wt.% phosphorous acid" is indefinite because it is unclear whether said concentration includes the phosphorous acid solution (i.e., component b)) or separately includes 50 wt.% phosphorous acid as an additional component.

Response to Arguments

10. Applicant's arguments filed February 22, 2006 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

11. Applicants (page 8 of the above noted response) assert they have amended the specification to provide the subject matter rejected under 35 USC 112, first paragraph. Attention is directed to the Objection under 35 USC 132(a). If said values are calculated values, applicants need to set forth the basis in the originally filed specification and the calculations thereof. Otherwise, said values constitute new matter.

12. The rejection of claim 47 has been maintained as no amendment or comment corrects the indefiniteness of the claim.

Conclusion

13. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.

Art Unit: 1712
